Dear Zionist Activist/Student --

HI---How is your fall semester going? I'm writing to inform you that the New England Regional Office of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) is putting together its 1983-84 program designed to help Jewish students deal with anti-Zionist and anti-Semitic activities on the college campuses.

In light of recent events at Harvard, B.U., U.-Mass., Amherst and elsewhere, it has become evident that there is a need for inter-campus discussion and coordination regarding such activities. Individual Zionist groups, indeed, individual Jews, often find themselves all alone in dealing with these problems.

This is where the ADL can help. On NOVEMBER 15, at 4:00 at the ADL, (72 Franklin St., Boston), there will be the first meeting of the Steering Committee for the ADL campus Hasbara Network. This is simply a fancy name for students, who, like yourselves, have been involved in Zionist activities on campus and wish to benefit from contact with other committed activists, and, at the same time, gain educational information and advice from the ADL.

The ADL has brought Raanan Gissin, an officer in the Israeli Defense Forces, in from Israel to speak on the Israeli military status and strategy in Lebanon--something that we are all concerned about in light of recent events.

At this meeting, we will also discuss the materials we are sending along to you at this time.

I believe the steering committee will take little time away from your other (undoubtedly Zionist) activities and should prove to be quite helpful. I hope to see you on the 15th.

Sincerely,

P.S. Please RSVP to the ADL Office at 542-4977 if you are planning to attend and, feel free to invite interested friends.
