Dear

Let me be the first to wish you a happy, healthy and sweet Jewish New Year. May these cards help you to pass similar sentiments along to your friends and loved ones. Rosh Hashanah heralds a time of new possibilities, as we look ahead to the coming year.

Under the auspices of our Cuban Jewish Relief Project, B'nai B'rith has long worked to deliver medical supplies, Judaica and other material goods to help the Cuban Jewish community survive and practice their religion. The new geopolitical situation will allow us to expand our efforts in the coming year and create new programs to create a deeper impact on a wider swath of Cuba's population.

Of course, the Cuba project is just a small part of our work to make the world a better place for the Jewish people and countless others around the globe. We will always act as a forceful advocate protecting Israel from those who seek to delegitimize or even eliminate her. B'nai B'rith remains a leader on critical international and domestic human rights issues. We continue to fight for the rights of senior citizens, while also providing them with affordable housing in over 40 communities across the nation.

While these High Holiday cards are yours to keep without obligation, we hope you will take a moment to support all of our programs with a special, tax-deductible contribution of $54, $36, $25 or even $18 today. With your help, we will find new pathways to mitzvot in 5777.

I wish you and your family health and happiness in the coming New Year.

L'Shana Tovah,

Daniel S. Mariaschin
Executive Director

P.S. Our faith and traditions uphold us through good times and bad. Your gift to B'nai B'rith helps us preserve our Jewish traditions and strengthen our faith.
