[redacted] Investigation at New York continues.

(U) ~~(S/NF)~~ In New York there has been two instances of moving company trucks (AA Van Lines and Moishe's), that have had a crew of Israeli nationals and have either given false addresses and contact numbers to New York City Police Department officers or have been stopped while attempting to circumvent stationary road checkpoints in New York City.

(U) ~~(S/NF)~~ Ongoing FBI investigation in Kansas City (FBI-KC), has also revealed a possible link to an Israeli moving company. On or around 09/14/2001, a moving van in the Chicago, Illinois area was stopped by local law enforcement officers. Within the van were three Israeli nationals that according to the stopping officer, possessed boxcutters, parachute chord, and maps of New York City with local New York landmarks circled in writing, not indicative of normal tourist highlights.

(U) ~~(S/NF)~~ These circumstances, when taken in the aggregate, pose the alarming possibility that they may indicate
