Re: United States v. Rosen and Weissman

Dear Gentlemen:

As we prepare our motions in limine, we have come across a few items that we would like to discuss with you.

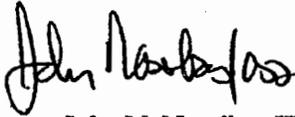

Previously, we had a conversation with Kevin DiGregory regarding whether you all intended to bring up Jonathan Pollard in any fashion during the trial. Kevin said that you did not. We would like to confirm that this is still the case and if so, we would like a binding assurance from you to that fact so that it does not have to be the subject of one of our motions.

Second, we would like to know whether you all intend to bring up the fact that Keith and Steve were fired by AIPAC after the search and the conversations prosecutors had with their counsel and principals. If you do not, we would also ask for an assurance that we can put on the record for the same reason or to determine how much of what happened after the search we would be able to explore at trial.

These seem like two areas on which we have and can reach agreement in order to have less litigation. I hope you agree. Please let us know where you stand on these two issues at your earliest convenience.
